

This is a shirt I created for my youth group at church. They asked for a design that was original and youthful that represented our church name, "River View Baptist Church". This is what I created, illustrating the river that was inspired by a mural in our church.

